He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in recommending the public that in our judgment it is the safest, most simple and reliable coupling that has yet been invented.
It fastens with both screws and bolts, or from either separately.
It can be easily and quickly separated. From a Cutting Bar has been in use entirely free from the slightest accident which fact alone is sufficient to recommend it.
Shafts of large sizes can be easily coupled, and in case of accident are readily repaired.
It is easy to put on and off, and will not work loose or there will be no end to annoyance.
We believe it to be the best coupling in use, and therefore recommend it to the public.

THURSDAY MORNING JANUARY 13 1870

Some of the Issues of the Year 1870

Without presuming to advise the Republican State Convention, soon to meet in regard to what it shall affirm or leave unsaid in its platform we have no hesitation in declaring, that it should exercise care to put itself in unison with the great masses of the party of the United States, to appreciate the present situation and to give expression to the clearly defined Republican views upon the great issues now before the country We doubt if the people care much about being told by solemn resolution about the sacredness of our Revolutionary fathers or the glorious victories which gave birth to independence and a new nation nor of the trite sayings about "abiding confidence in the masses," nor that rebellion is treason and treason is wicked," etc, etc We have read of all these things in history and in political essays and for all practical purposes have had enough of them in political platforms It is right and proper enough to hold the Democracy responsible for their sins of rebellion and treason and the creation of the public debt and the burdens of taxation, but we do not care to have treatises on subjects which bear no relation to the present time

The rebellion has left us a great debt What to do with it is of present and prospective moment. It must be paid, but how and when are questions that concern all of us. Do we want to pay it during the next ten, twenty or fifty years? Rapid payment will involve heavy taxation. But the people demand that the taxes shall be made lighter, if possible, and we are among those who believe it possible It would be a great and brave boast that we had managed to carry on a necessarily expensive government and had in ten, twenty or thirty years also managed to pay off such a national debt as ours, but would the boast compensate for the burdens of taxation which we should endure to accomplish it? Just at present, the people need relaxation of the burdens imposed by the government when there was no option but to impose them, more than they need the reputation of being quick paymasters Our national credit is good, the debt is not pressing and it can run on awhile without doing wrong to anybody, a reduced rate of taxation will suffice to pay the interest and to gradually reduce the principal, and meanwhile, the people will have time to recuperate and to grow up to the ability to extinguish the debt without suffering distress. A reduction of the taxes, then, is demanded by good policy and by the duty we owe to the industrial enterprises and the laboring classes of the country.

Not only do we want a reduction of direct, but also of all indirect taxes. Such a modification of the tariff, therefore, as will relieve to the utmost the stress upon all articles going necessarily into consumption, without imperilling our manufacturing industries, is one of the demands of the times. Proper protection is as vital to the prosperity of the laboring as to the manufacturing classes. Free trade not only stops domestic manufactures, and throws out of employment the operatives, the producers for them and the middle men, but opens the doors wide to competition by foreign goods manufactured by starvation-cheap labor. The laboring classes need protection from that sort of competition vastly more than does capital. The tariff, then, should be discriminating as well as protective.

In matters of reconstruction, the wisdom of requiring ample guarantees from the late rebels, of good behavior and for the protection of loyal citizens, has been signally proved by late events in various parts of the South, but most especially in Georgia. All the other States not yet admitted have shown so much of the right spirit as to leave no well founded reason for keeping them out longer than is required to go through the necessary formulas of admission in accordance with the constitution and reconstruction laws. The final restoration of all the States to representation in Congress and participation in the affairs of the Government should be accomplished at the earliest day consistent with safety and the vindication of those principles upon which the loyal men of the nation conducted the late war

We want the people of Oregon, through their delegates in the Republican State Convention, to express their views on these and other matters in issue, in such terms as will admit of but one construction, by friend or foe, and particularly do we want them to recognize in fitting terms the many reforms introduced and the abuses corrected, by President Grant, in the administration of military, naval and civil affairs, whereby greater economy has been secured, and to add the voice of the Republicans of Oregon to that of the great party of the Atlantic slope, calling upon the Administration and Congress for the introduction into all departments of the Government, of the most rigid and inflexible rules of economy and integrity

An Oregon Book

The specimen volume of "The River of the West" has been laid upon our table by Mr. Jos. M. Wolf, agent for Oregon, who is about to commence canvassing for subscriptions This is a book written by Mrs Frances Fuller Victor of St. Helens, Oregon, a lady well known to all literary circles of the Pacific coast, from matter furnished by Col. Jo Meek one of the most noted of the pioneers of Oregon—a mountain-man who was in many respects the most remarkable of his class The volume when published will contain something over six hundred pages, and will cost in cloth, $4 00 and in calf, (library binding) $4 50 It contains about thirty engravings—one of them an excellent full length picture of Jo Meek, in his "war paint." Of the contents of the book, we may say that, containing as it does, the life and adventures of the best living specimen of the mountain-man of a period when the great mountain and desert regions of the West were the scenes of the wildest romance and adventure, they could not fail to be most deeply interesting even if written by the clumsiest of pens, but when told in the easy graceful narrative style which Mrs Victor understands so well, the story is frequently thrilling, and always captivating Aside from the principal plot of the book, we find that it contains, incidentally, a good deal of the veritable unwritten history of the North west, of the old fur traders, Indian tribes, and early missions, descriptions of the country, with its rivers, mountains, scenery, deserts, and natural wonders It has also as a matter of course, much to say of the early settlement of Oregon and of incidents connected with immigration, Indian massacres and kindred subjects—events which are already surrounded with something of the interest which attaches to the long since Past As a literary effort, we think we can trust this Oregon book to the critics with confidence and pride assured that its author ess has thereby extended and enlarged a fame in which Oregon had before a right to feel just pride We may take occasion at no distant day to give our readers some choice extracts from it The book will be ready for delivery to subscribers about the middle of February

Editorial Notes

The Herald is getting over its scare on the repudiation question and coming rapidly though we cannot say bravely back to the old repudiation status of that paper Speaking, yesterday in favor of the public debt and the right and wrong of repudiating it, it says, the only question is as to the mode of the debt, and we are convinced that the people will conclude that it is unjust This may not be considered exactly "Red hot" but it is a tolerably square position considering the Herald's very recent effort at trimming between repudiation and payment

The National Intelligencer denounces the Democratic leaders of to day as Bourbons who forgetting nothing, still dream of the old republic, and who, through leaden stupidity are totally unequal to the occasion" It was apparent enough that there was something the matter and we accept the intensely Democratic Intelligencer as sufficient authority The Intelligencer doctor advises ample doses of negro as a cure for "leaden stupidity We are waiting to see if the stupid leaders will throw away their caste nostrums and take the prescribed negro dose.

The sight is onslaught of Mr Dawes upon the Departments for their two high estimates, notwithstanding its evident unfairness in some respects, seems to have struck a sympathetic chord in the breasts of the Republicans in Congress and all over the country The news we get by telegraph of the Departments and Bureaus going into the figuring down business as the sequence to Mr Dawes' speech, conjures up a picture which is whimsical enough. The effect is likely to be beneficial in more ways than one Not only are the Departments reviewing their estimates and figuring them down, but Congress is leading off with commendable economy in the matter of appropriations Occasional good sound jottings of the kind given the other day by Mr Dawes, cannot fail to produce the most desirable effects upon both Congress and the Departments Let the "figuring down" go on

The Overland Monthly for February, came to hand per steamer Montana As usual it is filled with articles, stories, poetry and editorial, fresh and spirited, and imbued with the peculiar characteristics of our young Pacific literature. In the way of well-told stories it has "Mr. Berleigh's Way" and "An Officer's Wife in New Mexico," "Our Ishmaelites" treats of our Indian systems in a decidedly free and easy style, and contains a suggestion of a "business way" of managing our Indian wards, which, after all seems open to as many objections as any of the old systems "A visit to Melrose" will be read with interest, as will the article on "Mackerel-catching," the "Story of an Ornithologist," and the somewhat philosophical essay "Concerning popular Assassination" The little doggerel poem entitled "Jim" contains in a half dozen stanzas of exclamations and characteristic ejaculations, almost a whole romance of mining life The Overland Monthly is still "marching on,"

A Democratic cotemporary speaks of the rule in regard to rotation in office as founded upon the idea that every man who takes an office is a thief at heart and immediately developes into one as soon as the opportunity is offered So, by the time he has learned the duties of his office, he is supposed to to have finished his thieving development, and is removed for the purpose, on this principle, of developing another thief If this be the particular idea, it is not by any means a new one; for "rotation in office" was always a favorite maxim with the Democracy when they were in power The deduction from these Democratic premises is this The Democracy claims to have administered the Government and to have rotated in office for about seventy years, or something more than two generations The Republicans have been in power in Congress about nine years and in the Executive Department but little over five The progress of thieving development in the Democracy stands related to the same sort of development in the Republican party, as about 8 to 1 The Democracy, therefore, would steal as much in one year, if in power, as the Republicans, in consequence of less perfect thieving development, would be able to steal in eight years, and this is probably not far from the true state of the case

Message of Governor of Utah

A copy of Acting Governor Mann's recent message to the Legislative Assembly of Utah, has been received The finances are in a healthy condition, for the Territory is entirely free of debt and, so far as known to Gov Mann all the counties are also in a like creditable condition The crops have been generally abundant although destroyed to a great extent by grasshoppers in three counties The overland railroad, with its branch to Salt Lake, is revolutionizing industrial pursuits The former trade with Nevada in the west and Montana and Idaho on the north has entirely failed, and dull times in business naturally follow But with abundant mines of iron, coal, copper, salt, lead silver and gold and rich and ample plains that can be irrigated by canals from eleven streams—and only agriculture but mining and manufactures as well as the mechanic arts, are open for full development By combined effort through corporations aided by immigration from abroad, much more can be accomplished than has been done heretofore Yet cloths flannels blankets of the best quality leather and articles made out of it was chosen fine workmanship, pottery, concrete and epsom salts have a ready home produced at home by their own skill

Common schools are flourishing but high schools are needed The law and divine and municipal practice need improvement Particularly that strange law forbidding attorneys from collecting any fees for services rendered in cases before the courts and that other equally strange law which prohibits the reading of any laws but those of the Territory and of Congress in the trial of any cause, and also the reading of any legal cases of any courts should be published as soon as possible The law forbidding the use of many of the most valuable medicines known to medical science should also be abolished But the great and all important matter to which he would call attention (but does not dwell as it is of no use to do so) has now passed beyond the reach of the Territorial Legislature and is in the hands of Congress On this vital topic nothing is too much said unless it be a trust in the wisdom and patriotism of the National Legislature to act for the interests of the people and in the spirit of the age Deseret News

During the past year Governor Hayes has pardoned forty seven prisoners from the Penitentiary five from the county jail commuted one sentence reprieved three criminals and transferred one to the Reform School

The total debt of Boston is $23 4 , being an increase of $5 000 000 during the year

There are 22 000 one cent houses in New York city, and 7 000 two cents fathom

An enterprising Boston merchant gives every tenth customer a ton of Hard Coal

OREGON

A correspondent of the City of Salem says that during the week just over three feet of snow fell in the Cascade and Burnt River mountains making the total depth of snow nearly six feet

We learn that Dr Neal has purchased, recently, the Heatherly farm in Lane county containing over 5 000 acres which added to his former land possessions in that county makes a farm of about 6 000 acres

Salem items in the Statesman of Wednesday The Knights Templars are getting up a fraternity and must all festival for the 14th of February

Drew Wadsworth has resigned as Elder of the Christian Church in that city

Yesterday in running off the public debt, and the right and wrong of repudiating it, says, the only question is as to the mode of the debt, and we are convinced that the people will conclude that it is unjust This may not be considered exactly "Red hot" but it is a tolerably square position considering the Herald's very recent effort at trimming between repudiation and payment

From the Lane Eddy we learn that a band of drunken Indians went on a raid the other night and frightened a couple of Frenchmen away from their houses The McKinnonville Sabbath School had a concert and festival last Wednesday which resulted well financially Capt W S Powell has purchased the interest of his late partner A J Hyde in the lumbering and warehouse business at Dayton

The Farmer speaking of the proceedings at the late meeting of the Board of Managers of the State Agricultural Society says "It will be seen, by an examination of the proceedings, that a thorough revision of the premium list was made, with the intention of giving more encouragement to the most useful and important branches of industry For instance the premiums offered for dairy products and all neat cattle swine vegetables wheat and oats have received greater notice and the encouragement offered for boys to become expert plowmen has been trebled and other important changes have been made In addition to the means deemed necessary to add interest to the Fair of 1870, as also the pleasure and comfort of visitors the executive committee was instructed to take measures for the erection of additional buildings and putting the grounds in better order This no doubt will be done

The Statesman gives the following account of a numerous family in Yamhill county Samuel Laughlin, who was born in South Carolina in 1791, moved to Missouri in 1824, and thence to Oregon in 1847 He was twice married to Missouri, and had by each wife seven children in all seven boys and seven girls of whom twelve are living, eleven of them in Oregon They are James M aged 52 who has 12 children John aged 48, has 12 children, Alfred aged 46 has 7 children Rachael Hutt aged 43 has 9 children Robert H aged 41 has 1 child, William aged 39 has 6 children Geo aged 37, Samuel D, aged 34, has 4 children Delia Smith aged 32 has 7 children Nancy Lapp aged 30, has 5 children Lucinda Suppington aged 26 has 6 children Twelve of the grandchildren are married and have 17 children of the fourth generation Altogether, the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, and the husbands and wives of the married ones, there are living in Oregon 128 persons of the family of this patriarch In the family there are 22 voters, all but 29 of them Democrats They lived on slave soil until coming to Oregon, but were always in favor of freedom, and have been active members of the Republican party since its formation In addition to the number in Oregon there is the family of Susannah Hamilton, in Missouri, who has six grown up children, the number of great grandchildren is not stated"

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

DEATH OF PROF EDMUNDS—FREIGHT—STEAM FIRE ENGINE VOTED FOR—WEATHER, GAME, ETC

[From the Walla Walla Union, Jan 22]

Prof George H Edmonds, the celebrated violinist died in this city, at the City Hotel, January 15th, of pneumonia He had been among us but a short time, but by his kindly and gentlemanlike bearing had drawn around him many warm friends, who are startled and grieved at his sudden death Mr E was not in good health when he came here, but was suffering from internal injuries sustained years ago Neither he nor his friends thought his illness of a very serious nature, and had no fears that his sickness would prove fatal even up to the very minute of his death He leaves two sisters and an aged mother in San Francisco, whose hearts will be saddened by this most unexpected blow.

Since the steamers have ceased running to Wallula, the company's warehouses have been cleared of goods, freight has been going forward to Lewiston nearly all winter The last load for Lewiston, we learned, was shipped last week Several loads of flour have been shipped lately from this place Flour is now selling at $11 and $12 per barrel at that place and we learn the supply is limited

Messrs Berry & Stowell have now some 1,100 head of sheep, among which are some very fine ones of the Cotswold breed We saw two lambs weighed early in the morning after they were dropped both from one ewe, which weighed together 21 pounds, one 11 and the other 10. Sheep raising is becoming quite a feature with our farmers

The special election held on Monday last, for the purpose of voting for or against a tax, for the purpose of purchasing a steam fire engine, passed off in a quiet way and resulted in the votes for the tax outnumbering those against it nearly two to one

Just now our ship units are having fine sport, The snow and cold weather has driven the deer out of the mountains into the low hills and valley There is also an abundance of game, chinook one and rabbits, all through the country

The past week is the only one of the season that has looked much like winter, during which we have had several pretty cold days There is about one inch of snow in the valley, which is the deepest we have had this winter

We learn that the Preston Brothers have purchased the interest of S M Watt in the flouring mill at Waitsburg

IDAHO

SEVERE COLD WEATHER—AND THEN A HEAVY RAIN STORM.

[From the Boise Statesman, Jan 15]

From Mr Chandler the Rocky Bar express man, we learn that 72 miles of the distance between this city and Rocky Bar is now best made on snow shoes Mr Burnett who carried the mail and express from Rocky Bar to Atlanta last week, had both his feet badly frozen The weather has been extremely cold for four weeks and the snow was five feet deep between Rocky Bar and Atlanta before the present storm commenced Up to the time of going to press last night we had about thirty six hours almost incessant rain, with the thermometer considerably above freezing point At one time yesterday Cottonwood creek threatened to overflow Main street, but it receded without leaving the banks to any great extent John Krall suffers considerable damage by having his brewery cellar filled

HERE KNOWN—MESSRS HOFFELT OF A FROZEN OUT SEASON

[From the Statesman Jan 18]

The Armstrong boys, accompanied by George Johnson started two or three weeks ago on a trading expedition among the Indians in the Upper Weiser They did not succeed in reaching the valley on account of the deep snow and were compelled to return They killed six deer on their way back The snow is several feet in depth between the lower and Upper Weiser Valleys

A heavy snow storm prevailed in the mountains on Thursday and Friday last during which time a heavy rain fell in the valley, taking off all the snow that had fallen The coming summer will probably be a most prosperous one to the miners and to the whole territory for present indications appear to warrant plenty of water

UTAH NEWS

THE CITIZENS DESIRE TO BE ANNEXED TO IDAHO

[From the Boise Statesman Jan 18]

The people of Corinne are considerably agitated on the subject of annexation to Idaho They have held meetings, made speeches and adopted resolutions They say that it is plainly to their interest to have all that portion of Utah lying north of the northern line of Colorado annexed to Idaho They desire this in order to get rid of the arbitrary rule of Brigham Young and his followers in Mormon Corinne and all the rest of the Gentile settlements seem to be united on the subject and we have no doubt that nine tenths of the people of that part of Utah are of the same opinion The Mormons who live there are the anti polygamous faith as I are he most of the end of Brigham's rule as the Gentiles are We apprehend there will be no opposition to the move in Congress except from the delegate from Utah unless some Dem ocrat takes it into his head that he can create a new issue thereby by putting in an objection

The Ideal Senator in Congress is a man of character who will be quiet

On motion, the Common Council adjourned.

RAILROAD SHIPMENTS.—There has been considerable speculation in Portland, and in fact all over the coast, in regard to the effect which the opening of the Pacific Railroad would have upon the commerce of the country. In many instances it has been expressed that it would tend to check the manufacturers of this coast by cheapening the cost of importation from those States where labor is cheaper, especially skilled labor, or in other words by bringing our manufactures more generally into competition with those of the East. In reference to that question, the following is from a San Francisco paper. "This competition, in certain branches of business, has been felt, but, up to the present time, in a less degree than was anticipated. The iron interest—its manufacture of machinery—has received the greatest shock, but it is not believed that heavy machinery can, for much length of time be imported to compete with work done in California. In the interior, it is noticed that certain descriptions of light goods—fancy merchandise—are brought from the Atlantic States, and sold for a less price than can, or rather, have been sold for in San Francisco."

San Francisco merchants, as a rule, realized large profits on numbers of articles which Eastern merchants have sold at nearly cost. Profits have been regular, with but little competition. There is, however, no reason why every description of foreign merchandise may not be sold as cheap, to say the least, in San Francisco as in Chicago. San Francisco merchants will also, we believe, sell articles of Eastern manufacture for as small profits, when their arrangements shall all be made, as the merchants in any Western city. So far, really but little interference has been experienced by San Francisco from Eastern traders. The dull times—the depression which exists—does not arise so much from competition as from an absence of means with which to do business.

ORO FINO THEATER—OPENING NIGHT.—Manager Bates has again shown his tact as a manager and his thorough understanding of the tastes of the people of Portland by the selection of dramatic talent with which to reopen the theater. The bills published yesterday announcing the appearance of Joe Murphy and wife, Portland's old favorite, J. H. Vinson, and several new names, had the effect to fill the theater to its utmost capacity. The gratification of the manager at seeing such an opening house could not, however, have been greater than that of the audience at the excellence of the performance, judging from the frequent and prolonged acclamations of applause to Mr. Murphy and his pretty wife, Mr. Vinson, Mrs. Cox, Miss Mandeville and others of the company. There were several encores to Mr. Murphy and frequently the vast audience broke into the most uncontrollable laughter at his fresh eccentricities. This gentleman can certainly feel no disappointment at his reception. It was warm and enthusiastic to a degree very seldom witnessed anywhere. Joe is a "hit." We congratulate the people on a prospective dramatic season which promises amusement of the "first water."

I. O. G. T.—On last Saturday, C. Beal, organized Scholl's Ferry Lodge No. 3, I. O. G. T. in Washington county, with 20 charter members. The officers are: B. T. Flint, W. C. T., Louisa E. Levarge, W. V. T., Rev. J. C. Campbell, W. S., Carrol Abbey, W. A. S., Samuel Johns, W. F. S., Mary F. Landers, W. T., Calvin Jack, W. M., Cynthia A. Seelye, W. D. M., Robert Robinson, W. I. G., T. L. Harris, W. O. G., W. Landers, P. W. C. T., Peter Scholl, W. C. W. Landers, L. D., Iowa Taylor, R. S., Temple Seelye, L. S. The lodge meets on Saturday evenings.

NOTICE.—A paper published in San Francisco and entitled La Sociedad, was received at this office last evening with "Press Notice" which was about all the sheet contained that was intelligible to us. However we give the proprietor the use of our columns for one of his own notices which reads thus: La Sociedad. Se publica todos los Miercoles y Sabado a. Precios de suscricion. Un ano anticipado $10 00. Seis meses, $6. Tres meses $3 50. Oficina Calle de Sansome, Numero 621. Cuarto 21.

AT HOME.—U. S. Marshal Thomas G. Young, who has been looking after the interests of the Government in the southwestern part of the State for some weeks returned to me by the boat yesterday afternoon. He succeeded in effecting the object of his visit and his energy in ferreting out the violators of the Revenue Laws, is commendable. He was after larger game than some of our city papers have reported.

THE DEBATE.—The debate last night at Harmony Hall was begun in a very spirited style by Mr. Todd and followed up by Mr. Arnold in an equally pertinent and telling manner. We are not prepared to judge as to who were the victors in the intellectual contest, but presume that after the smoke and excitement of the battle have cleared off the friends of both parties will claim a triumph. The discussion is interesting whether the results are matters of indifference or otherwise.

THE CALIFORNIA.—The steam propeller California, designed hereafter to run on the route between Portland and Victoria, arrived from the latter place at 10 o'clock yesterday. She was built about five years ago, and is a very staunch and proper vessel for their present trade. Her tonnage is about 650 tons, and she will accommodately afford accommodation to about 100 passengers cabin and steerage. Due announcement of her time of sailing hereafter will be made.

BEHIND TIME.—A subscriber at Martin's Bluff, on the Columbia, about five hours run from this city, complains and with some justice, too, that it often takes the mail a week to reach that place. He further says that a letter lately reached the Martin's Bluff P. O. which had been just three months in making the trip from Portland. This is rather slow in these days when every thing but the mails is reported fast, but we are unable to point out the culpable party.

FREE STREAMS AND BAD ROADS.—From all directions we hear of the streams in the Willamette Valley are booming. Day before yesterday, the [illegible]undation was so high that Mr. Jamison had to go some three miles above the usual crossing place to get over. The roads are also reported to be almost impassable in many places. Some bridges have also been washed away, and traveling by land is an arduous undertaking.

NEW WORK.—Moses Curran & Porter have secured the services of an excellent workman, and propose to do all kinds of wood turning in the neatest and finest manner known to the trade. These gentlemen have been too long established in Portland for the people here to need any assurance from us, that orders for work from their shop will be filled in the most workmanlike manner.

A FINE MAP.—A fine map of the newly surveyed portion of Caruthers addition to the city of Portland has been made by Mr. Stevenson, City Surveyor. We notice several new streets laid down on it named for leading generals in the late war except the southernmost which is denominated Woods street in honor of his Excellency the Governor of Oregon.

PENCIL SKETCH.—A pencil sketch shown us yesterday exhibited a true appreciation of art on the part of the young lady who drew it. The design is the Castle of the Black Knight, Ivanhoe, and the execution as to lights and shades, is indicative of refined taste and a high degree of skill. It was drawn by Miss Clara Meyers, of East Portland.

WEATHER RECORD.—A weather record is now being kept at the rooms of the Portland Library Association, for the use and benefit of the city, under the supervision of the Common Council. Mr. Gilliland, Librarian, will attend to keeping the record and we have no doubt that it will be perfectly reliable.

LARGE MAIL.—The boat from this place made the connection with that from the Dalles, at the Cascades yesterday, and returned with a large amount of mail matter from the East, which had accumulated during the freeze in the Columbia.

FLOODED.—During the heavy rains prevailing of late, the surface drain on Montgomery street overflowed and washing down the grade flooded First and Front street, to a depth highly incommodious to travelers on foot.

WILL SAIL.—The Montana is advertised to sail for San Francisco, to-morrow, at 6 P. M. She has discharged her freight, and is now receiving a cargo of produce, etc.

BLOWN DOWN.—The wooden lamp post at the corner of C and Third streets, was blown down by the storm the other day. An iron one is to be erected in its place.

A NEW QUARTZ CRUSHER.—The Walla Walla Union of the 22d, has the following notice of a recent local invention:

Dr. J. H. Day has in course of construction a miniature model of his quartz crusher, for which a patent was granted him in August last. The principle is new in every particular and is composed of a series of plates, shaped something like an inverted saucer, and over the top revolves a ponderous globe that is self fed, which rqus to a large pan with a vibratory motion, and which in its rounds acts on all the plates at once, and as the ore descends from the ponderous rolls, its fineness is not completed until it goes through the last plate. When the model shall have been completed we will give a full description of its parts and process of its operations. If it does what is claimed for it, it bids fair to revolutionize the business of quartz crushing.

MINING PROSPECTS.—The Walla Walla Statesman of the 22d says:

"All the accounts that reach us go to show that the prospects for miners never were better. There has been an immense snow fall in the mountains, and this ensures an abundant supply of water for the next season's operations. Let our valley producers be industrious, they will have a market for all they can raise and much more.

B. L. STONE has just received per steamer Montana the finest lot of Jewelry ever brought in this city, consisting of an elegant assortment of Solid Gold and Silver Chains, a lot of new and rare "suits" of the most exquisite taste, beautiful Gold Bracelets and Finger Rings—all of the latest styles. Also a fine lot of Clocks and Gold and Silver Watches. Go and see him. Mr. Stone will allow no one in the city to undersell him.

There is nothing more pleasing to Son and Parent than a neat fitting and good suit of clothing. The place such are to be found is at Kohn & Fishel's, No. 91 Front street. Their suits are all custom made. Their stock of clothing is the largest in the city and will be sold lower than ever the next two months to make room for their extensive Spring stock soon to arrive.

Nowhere can a few hundred dollars be so well invested as in the Puget Sound Homestead Association. It will insure each shareholder an interest in the great city to be built at the terminus of the Northern Pacific Railroad. Over One Hundred Shares are already taken. Persons desiring to become Stockholders will do well to call soon and enroll their names.

ADVICE, IF YOU WISH TO BUY A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHING, TAKE A FRIEND'S ADVICE AND BUY THE MATHAR MANROS ODDFELLOW STEMPLE, FIRST STREET, Portland.

The Vital Statistics of California

Show that periodical fevers and acute and chronic disorders of the stomach and bowels are among the most prominent and fatal diseases in the State. Bloodshedding to the laws of health as regards diet, the use of pernicious stimulants, and the wear and tear of business excitement and of fast life generally, have much to do with the prevalence of those maladies in our cities, while in the interior and especially in the gold yielding districts they are chiefly due to malaria, unwholesome water and exposure and privation incident to life in new settlements and mining camps. Now it is a fact that it is as possible to protect the human system against these maladies as to guard life and property against the incursions of Sioux and Modocs. Strengthen the vital organization with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS and it becomes as capable of resisting the active principle of epidemic or endemic disease, as a fire-proof safe is of resisting the action of combustion. This is the experience of thousands who have submitted unscathed by malarious disorders in the sickly seasons while their neighbors who neglected to tone and regulate their systems with this unequalled medicinal stimulant have fallen thick and fast around them. Weakness invites disease. Augment it. Help nature to fight the fight. Fight with infection whether it be in the air, the water or the food, with this matchless preparation—a compound of the purest vegetable extracts with the purest of all diffusive stimulants.

The Crisis in Utah.

TROUBLE AT HOME AND THAT BIG BALLOON FROM ABROAD—THE SCHISM AMONG THE SAINTS—CON GRESSIONAL INTERFERENCE FEARED—HOSTILITY BEFORE SCRUTATION.

Correspondence of the S. F. Bulletin.

SALT LAKE CITY, January 7, 1870.

THE NEW SITUATION.

A new era has dawned upon Utah, a wonderful change! Between the present situation of the Mormons and their past there is but a faint relationship. The mountains and valleys are where they were, but these alone recall to the former visitor to the "City of the Saints" that he is again to the capital of Mormondom. It is not in the growth of the city, in its aggregation of buildings, nor yet in the countenances of strangers perambulating the streets. The change in externals is certainly astonishing; but it is less in what is seen than in that which is felt, which constitutes the change in Salt Lake City. A few years back, all was unity among the Mormons; seldom a whisper of dissent was heard from the teachings and counsels of the apostles and priests. The Prophet reigned Supreme in the hearts of the people. A dissenter now and again might be heard of in a whisper; to-day, the air is pregnant with their words and all Gentiledom is predicting their triumph and the overthrow of "the one man power."

To what extent the spirit of opposition to the ruling authorities of the Mormon Church may be carried, would be hazardous to predict; but nothing is more certain than that the inauguration of free thought, free speech and free press in Utah has been ushered in. Singularly enough, and unlooked for was the fact, that the long predicted change issues right from the center of the faithful, and not by the force of contact with the outside world, as was expected.

THE NEW MOVEMENT.

As it seems fairly designated, commences the year with the establishment of the Mormon Tribune, an eight-page weekly, with a powerful editorial staff and a number of other able contributors. The gist of the writings is the overthrow of the present regime of the Church. There is no vindictive, vituperative language; yet boldness enough to disturb the quiet serenity that has heretofore characterized the community of the Saints. If the people read the Tribune there must come a wide spread change in the Territory before long.

BRIGHAM GRANDLY SILENT.

How the chief ruler takes the attacks upon his position and policy is not stated, nor known. He is said to be very reticent, and leaves his defense in the hands of a few of his apostles. There is ground for suspecting that he is not so certain about the true character of his opposition, nor its extent. How it comes, I have not learned; but it seems inexplicable that he should permit the dissenters to occupy the best hall in the city every Sunday morning for the dissemination of their doctrines. He has a reason for this extraordinary liberality.

Brigham Young has the reputation of being a wonderfully sagacious man. Is he trying the people to see where they would wander if left without his shepherd voice? Does he want to see with his own eyes, the predicted change that is to follow his death? Does he wonder if it cannot be possible for a new phase in theocracy to develope itself harmonious with the precepts of the world in everything else? Or is he quietly waiting the development of the "New Movement" till it reveals its vulnerable point, and then, oh, then—if he finds it, the chips will fly. Whatever its purpose its development is not distant. Meantime the dissenters have no cause to complain of personal or annoyance, which is more than was generally looked for.

A GLOWING NEW YEAR'S OUTLOOK.

The new year, therefore, commences in Utah with foreshadowing a year of great interest to this little world in the mountains, and not to the people here only, for all Christendom is interested in the Mormon question. The representatives of the apostle Young are now in all the nations of Europe, and for the last thirty years have been gathering from every church and society disciples to increase the power of the Church in the Wilderness.

CONGRESS AND POLYGAMY.

Very unkindly, Congress has undertaken to add to the difficulties here by threatening a vigorous application of an anti-polygamous law. The law of 1862 has been found loose and inoperative and within the last two weeks the Chairman of the Committee on Territories reported to the House an amended bill that is believed to meet the question in all its bearings. The former bill was practically a nullity and tended to the increase of the institution more than to its prohibition. There was no way to reach the man of consequence, who dared to brave the law; but the legal gentlemen of this city think they have now fully completed the instrument. For several months before the meeting of Congress the amendments were the subject of discussion with nearly all the bar and the Utah Federal judiciary. Two of their number went to Washington and have had every facility from the Committee on Territories to demonstrate the efficiency of the amendments, and the probability is that the House and Senate also, will pass the Anti-Polygamic bill as amended, and there is the beginning of strife.

Polygamy in Utah in the past was tolerated on account of her isolation; to-day, she is the centre of the great West. The thousands who passed over the Pacific railroad last year were few compared with the hundreds of thousands yet to travel between the oceans. Before the advent of the iron horse Utah was a distant province, the Mormons a people only occasionally thought of; to-day, they are now our neighbors, and at our very doors. The question of Mormon religion and conscience was by common consent to be let alone as long as possible. The nation had other business to attend to; but now that the other "twin" is effectively disposed of, this, the smaller and the least obtrusive, has now to be looked to. Such is the programme.

BRIGHAM'S GREAT EXCITER.

The News publishes the amended bill and accompanies it with a lengthy editorial. The editor-apostle attacks the principal lawyers—parents of the amendments—and goes for them thus:

> There in the old plan open to them—write the "Mormons" down in the newspapers, create public opinion against them, tell all the lies that wicked brains can fabricate, urge and beg the Government to enact laws against them, and then send an army to enforce those laws. "Polygamy" is the cry, but the property is of the "Mormons" is the booty. They only hate "polygamy" so far as it interferes with their pleasures. What they want is money. If the "Mormons" would give it to them, they would be a very clever, fine people. But they do not, and hence this outcry against the whole subject of the "Mormons."

SHORT AND FULL OF FAITH.

The editor comprehends that Congress means business:

> If God did not reign, the people of Utah would be in a pitiable condition. They might reasonably calculate on being "gobbled up." The trap is being arranged, and if they do not walk into it, they are to be driven in. But there is a French proverb, the truth of which has been repeatedly established, that these men should remember, "Man proposes but God disposes."

THE MORMON LAST DITCH.

Finally, if the worst should come, the Saints will sooner burn all their property, lay waste everything, rather than be subjugated:

> There is one resolve, however, that we have heard expressed which we trust will never be forgotten—no mob, sanctioned by law or otherwise, shall ever enjoy, undisturbed, the fruits of our toil. We would rather see this land converted again into a wilderness, and the labors of twenty-five years swept away in a few hours, than that our enemies shall find that reward for their villainy in our possessions.

There is no mistaking this language, it is an idle, boastful threat, it is the expression of an earnest man—such as Mr. Cannon, the mouth piece of Brigham Young.

WILL CONGRESS ACT?

But will Congress put the Mormons to the test? It is doubted, yet it is difficult to listen to the language of the first men of the nation, to witness the pledges of Congress to the extinction of polygamy, and to note the operations of the opponents of Mormonism here without concluding that no human power can now avert an issue of some kind. Before extremities could be resorted to, every means should be employed to bring the question before the Supreme Court of the United States, and there let it find its finality.

WILL NOT LEAVE THE TERRITORY.

Since terminating this letter, I find in another issue of the News an editorial on the subject. The editor insists that it is the lands and possessions of the Saints that is coveted, and not polygamy the cause of the trouble. That it is the design to "compel the Latter Day Saints to renounce their religion or to abandon this country," and to that he replies that the Lord has promised to fight their battles; but, at all events:

> There is one assurance, however, we can, in the meantime, give to our enemies—no scheme they can devise will compel the bulk of the latter-day Saints to renounce their faith, or forsake their lands. They will make this country the bowling wilderness it once was, make it so poor that its acquisition would be undesirable for a savage, but even then they will not leave it. This country is theirs by every right on which men and nations have occupancy and possession. They have wrenched no one by violence or have attended to their own business and meddled with no one's possessions, and, God being their helper they intend to keep it, to rest its fruits, to drink its water, to breathe its air and enjoy its freedom and who shall prohibit them?

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

ARCHBISHOP MCCLOSKEY IN THE SACRED COLLEGE.

Archbishop McCloskey is likely to bring back a Cardinal's hat

The Rev George A Pelle, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church of Philadelphia, has been appointed General Secretary of the Sunday School work of the American Baptist Publication Society.

The venerable Dr Pond, Professor at Bangor, will be relieved of his duties in the Seminary at the close of the present school year He is in his seventy-eighth year, and his increasing deafness makes it difficult to conduct class exercises. The present number of students at the Seminary is forty

The New York Post says, "upon excellent authority," that it is reported that the Rev. Samuel Osgood, D D, the prominent Unitarian divine, has become an Episcopalian His retirement from the Church of the Messiah, in New York, previous to his departure for Europe, was made final, with this change in view.

Frederick Starr, a well known philanthropist of Western New York, lately deceased, left $22,000 in legacies, divided between Auburn Theological University, Ingham University, various public institutions of Rochester, the American Board, American Tract Society, Presbyterian Home Mission Committee and American Sunday School Union

The Rev. James Lynch, of the Mississippi M E Conference, recently elected Secretary of State of Mississippi, does not intend to cease preaching. He believes it was his duty to assist in the reconstruction of the State, but he does not intend to abandon the work of the ministry. He says: "My personal salvation depends on my preaching the Gospel. God has called me, I cannot, I dare not refuse."

In 1805 Lord Radstock, of England, established a daily noon meeting in Paris, which is still continued with good interest. In the same place is a Monday meeting of English workmen, supported by Lady Henrietta Cowper, daughter of Lord Bishington. Several meetings were held for French workmen, sustained by some of the native French pastors and others. Lord Radstock said recently, in one of these meetings, that the "improvement seemed almost incredible since his visit last year." The distribution of Bibles began at the Exhibition in 1867, still goes on, both in Paris and the provinces, and several pious persons are quite devoted to the work.

Baron Stow, D. D, died in Boston on the 27th ult. Both as a divine and an author he had more than a local reputation. He was born in Croydon, N. H., in 1801, and graduated at Columbian College, D. C., in 1825. He was an editor there for two years; then for five years pastor of a Baptist church in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, that he left to accept a call from Boston, where he ever afterward resided. For twenty years he was one of the leading members of the American Baptist Missionary Union. He was one of the overseers of the Harvard University, a Fellow of Brown, and President of the Trustees of Newton. He visited Europe twice. He published ten volumes of a religious nature, besides many sermons and tracts, and was a profuse contributor to magazines. Dr. Stow was one of the ablest and most influential divines of his denomination, and his death will be greatly regretted by Baptists.

Mounykyan, a young Burman, came to this country about ten years ago, as an attendant of Mrs. Hibburd, a returning missionary. He was not then converted to Christianity, but wished to remain here to learn the English language, in order to act as interpreter on his way home. He soon became a Christian, and has pursued his education with a view of becoming a missionary among his countrymen. Some years later, a young Burman woman came over. Mounykyan saw her, became interested in her, and aided her also in obtaining an American education, and last spring they were married. He has worked his way along, paying the expense of both her education and his own; earning money chiefly by lecturing about the country on Burman life and customs, and has accumulated a sum sufficient to pay their passage back again by the overland route. He goes out independent of all societies.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Within five years there have been fifty-two Congregational Churches organized in the State of Missouri, where before there was but one.

The Richmond Christian Advocate says, concerning the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South: The entire contributions for twelve months, of 39,611 members, for domestic and foreign missions, reached the sum of $1,675 08—a little more than twelve cents for each member.

In the Norwegian Lutheran College, at Decorah Illinois, the students have daily exercises in speaking and writing Latin, and particular importance is attached to it, because the subsequent theological instructions in the seminary at St. Louis are, for the most part given in Latin by the Norwegian professor.

The conservative members of the Hebrew congregation of Washington, D. C., having seceded, will hold separate worship, and have purchased a cemetery of their own. This action by the orthodox members they represent is owing to the recent introduction of an organ in the synagogue, as also the omission of certain portions of the service, and the failure of the reformers to attend the meetings on the Sabbath day (Saturday) during which day they keep their places of business open.

One of the fruits of the establishment of religious freedom by the new Government of Spain has been the formation of a Protestant society in Ponce, the capital of the island of Porto Rico. It is Episcopal in form. A subscription of above five thousand dollars has been raised already, and Rev. Mr. Allan has been invited to officiate for a few months. The first service was held on the 28th of October, at the house of Thomas G. Solomon, Esq., and was attended by about two hundred persons—the first Protestant public worship ever observed on the island.

The meeting house built at Waldoboro, Maine, more than a hundred years ago by the Germans, is still standing, with its twenty windows of four by nine glass, its square unpainted pews, its pulpit, sounding board, and communion table of pine The last pastor was the Rev. John William Stilmar, a native of Helmstadt, Germany, who preached in this ancient house more than fifty years, in German and English, and who died in 1854, ninety-one years of age. Old Conrad Hoyer acted as charioteer in the old house for eighty years, and when a hundred years old would sing the highest notes with scarcely any of the tremulousness of age. Nothing now remains of those ancient people who once worshipped there. The old church is kept in repair by the liberality of Colonel George Sinouse.

The differences between Unitarians have been well illustrated in New York. The Rev. Mr Hepworth, Dr. Osgood's successor, in a recently published communication on the observance of Christmas, said: "The Unitarians believe so fully in the providential mission and the divine character and authority of Christ, that they would be strangely recreant to their own faith were they to ignore the pivotal day. Though they believe that Christ was a God, and base their belief on the reiterated assertions of the Saviour himself, they yet regard him as a final authority in all religious matters, as being sent by the Father on a special mission, and he one to whom they are indebted for what makes this life beautiful, and open up the glories of immortality." To this the Rev John W. Chadwick, minister of the Second Unitarian Church in Brooklyn, replied as follows in a newspaper card: "There is one word in this statement, and only one that needs correction, and that is the word 'The' with which it begins In place of 'The' write 'Some,' and the statement will be perfectly true; but in its present form it is very far from being so For it implies a uniformity of belief among Unitarians concerning the person of Jesus which does not exist Unitarians are only agreed in this matter in a belief that Jesus was not God They differ widely as to what he was I am fully persuaded that very few of them regard Him as final authority in all religious matters; that a large majority of them regard the response of their own reason, conscience, and faith to His and all other revelations as the 'final authority.'"

The King of Wurtemberg is said to be a perfect glutton. He remains every day for nearly three hours at the dinner table.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE REMEDY that has yet been discovered. IT CURES the most stubborn and hopeless CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED EYE LIDS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months which it has been offered to the public suffers. The proprietor is so fully confident of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or risk to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, SIXTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness. Also

E. B. MOORE,	NATHANIEL BRIT,
A. L. WALLICK,	G. E. WARD,
Mrs MONTGOMERY,	JOHN M. HILTSLEY,
W. D. PORTER,	ROBT. MARSHALL,

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the disease of the eyes can be cured or no pay. Those who have used eye salves and other remedies without success, should not be discouraged, but call and get the Ophthalmic Panacea, which will cure them. Those who have lost the sight of one eye, and fear the disease will attack the other, should not delay a moment, but call and get the Panacea, which will prevent the disease from attacking the other eye. Those who have weak eyes, and fear they will become diseased, should call and get the Panacea, which will strengthen the eyes and prevent disease. Those who have sore eyes, and are afraid to use anything for fear it will injure them, should call and get the Panacea, which will cure them. Those who have sore eyes, and have used many remedies without success, should call and get the Panacea, which will cure them.
